An Act for the Organization of Corporate Congregational Churches.

Act. 53, Public Acts of Michigan, 1901, as amended by Act. 84
Public Acts 1905

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

SECTION 1. That it shall be lawful for any number of persons of full age, not less than five, who may desire to form themselves into a Congregational church, to execute and acknowledge before any person authorized to take acknowledgment of deeds, articles of association, in writing, whereby they shall agree to organize a church, according to the faith and usages of the churches commonly called Congregational, under the name and style set forth in said articles of association, which articles shall contain the following items:

First, The name of said church;

Second, The township, village or city, and the county in which said church shall be located;

Third, An agreement to worship and labor together as a church according to the faith and usages of the churches commonly called Congregational.

SEC. 2. The persons who shall have signed the said articles of association may, at their discretion, elect at the time and place of signing the articles, or designate by majority vote some other time and place for electing by ballot, and by majority vote, such number of persons, not less than three nor more than twelve, as they may deem necessary, to serve as trustees of the said church until their successors shall be elected, a majority of whom shall be members of the said church; one-third of such trustees shall, at the first election, be chosen for three years, one-third for two years, and one-third for one year, as near as may be; but thereafter, except to fill vacancies, they shall be chosen for three years; of which election a full record shall be made, and a certified copy of such record, signed by the presiding officer and the secretary of the meeting held for such election, together with the said articles of association, shall be recorded by the clerk of the county wherein such church or their place of worship shall be located, in a book by him provided for that purpose; and such clerk shall be entitled to ten cents for each folio for recording the same. When such articles of association and the certificate of the record of the said election of trustees shall have been so filed for record in the county clerk's office, the trustees so chosen and their successors in office shall become thereby and be a body corporate by the name expressed in the said articles of association, with all the rights and privileges appertaining to religious corporations of this order.

SEC. 3. It shall be lawful for said church at any regular or called meeting of its members, due notice having been given as hereinafter provided, by a two-thirds majority of the ballots cast at such meeting, to alter or amend its articles of association, in any manner not inconsistent with the provisions of this act; and such alteration or amendment shall become operative when a copy of the same, duly certified by the presiding officer and the clerk of such meeting, and acknowledged before any person authorized to take acknowledgment of deeds, shall be filed with the clerk of the county for record.

SEC. 4. It shall not be lawful for anyone to vote in the meetings of such corporate church after the first election of trustees, on questions touching the church as a corporate body—such as the choice of trustees, or pastor, or treasurer, or clerk, or committees, the pastor's salary, the acquisition, lease, mortgage, sale of real and personal property, the building, repairing, removal, enlarging and sale of church and parsonage buildings, or whatever else pertains to the said church as a legal corporation—unless such person shall be of a legal age, shall be a member of such church in regular standing, and shall have attended the worship of said church statedly for six months, and contributed regularly according to the custom thereof to the support of such church for one year next preceding the time when such vote is offered: Provided, That if the church shall not have been organized so long, or has for any cause suspended worship for a season, the voters at the time of organization or of suspension shall be entitled to vote the same as if worship and payment had been had during the preceding year: And provided further, If there has been a consolidation under the provisions of act forty-seven of the public acts of nineteen hundred-one between a church and religious or ecclesiastical society formerly connected therewith, and if, in the proceedings to effect such consolidation it has been voted that the membership in the consolidated body incorporate shall include both the members of the church and the pew holders in the church qualified to vote, that then and in such case, in addition to the persons having the qualifications above stated, the following persons shall have the right to vote upon the questions above mentioned, viz: All persons of legal age who have attended the worship of said church statedly for six months, and who have been pew holders therein and contributed regularly according to the custom thereof, to the support of such church for one year next preceding the time when such vote is offered.

SEC. 5. When a meeting of the said church shall be called for the transaction of any business relating to the church as a corporate body, as specified in the preceding section of this act, notice of the same, specifying the time, place, object or objects, of the meeting, shall be read from the pulpit on the two successive Sundays on which services shall be held preceding such meeting; but in case it is proposed to alter or amend the articles of association, the proposed alteration or amendment shall be read from the pulpit three successive Sundays at which services shall be held preceding the meeting at which action is to be taken thereon, and the said amendment or alteration shall not itself be amended, in any material point, in the same meeting at which it is adopted. Provided, That if there shall be no public services at which the said notice may be given, then notices of the said meetings may be posted on the church door or published in the town, city or county newspaper, whose circulation among the members is greatest, for three weeks preceding such meeting, specifying time, place, and object of said meeting.

SEC. 6. Those entitled to vote under section 4 of this act shall have power to choose, call and settle a pastor, and to ascertain and fix his salary; to elect, by ballot, trustees, treasurer and clerk; to instruct the trustees to lease, buy, sell, convey or mortgage real estate; to rent, buy, build, repair, enlarge, sell or transfer school, parsonage or church buildings or other buildings needful for church, parsonage, school or cemetery purposes; and to control the action of all officers and committees as it may deem wise; but it shall do these things only in meetings duly called for the purpose, as provided for in section 5 in this act. Other matters, not specified in this section, which pertain to the corporate affairs of the church, may be left to the discretion of the trustees.

SEC. 7. The trustees may have a common seal, and may alter the same; they may, in their corporate name, sue and be sued in all courts and places; and they may recover and hold all the debts, demands, rights and privileges, and all property, whether real or personal, of whatever sort it may be, belonging or appertaining to said church, in whatever manner the same may have been acquired, and in whose hands soever the same may be held, the same as if the right and title had been originally vested in said trustees. And they may hold in trust and in perpetuity so much land as may be needful for the proper purpose of the said church, not exceeding five acres; and they may hold for a period not exceeding fifteen years real estate which may be lawfully conveyed or bequeathed to them, or to the said church, or to the Sunday school connected with the said church of which they are trustees, to be sold and the proceeds to be used in any way for the benefit of said church or Sunday school, or both conjointly; but if such real estate be not disposed of and the proceeds applied as directed in the conveyance or bequest in the said period of fifteen years, the same shall revert to the grantor, his heirs or assigns. The trustees are subject to the control of the church, as provided in section 6 of this act, and they shall report all their proceedings to the church, for the information and approval of the same. The trustees shall be elected by ballot at the annual meeting, except to fill vacancies, and the notice of such meeting shall name the trustees whose terms of office expire at the close of said meeting, and whose places are to be filled.

SEC. 8. If any church shall at any time be without trustees, for any cause, such church shall not in consequence lose its corporate existence; but said church may, at any time within six years, proceed to elect trustees, as provided for in this act, who shall be the successors in all respects of those previously chosen, and shall be possessed of all their rights and property, real and personal, the same as if no break in the succession had occurred; but in case a church shall become extinct and shall be declared extinct by vote of the association of churches to which it belonged at the time of its extinction, then the property of said church, real and personal, together with all funds held in trust by it or by its trustees or deacons, either for the said church or for any school connected with it, or for a pastor's library, or for any other purpose, shall revert to the "Michigan Congregational Association," a body duly incorporated under the laws of Michigan, whose trustees shall take and hold the same in trust for said extinct church, in case it shall revive within six years from the time it was declared extinct by the association to which it belonged; but in case the church shall not be revived within six years the trustees of the said Michigan Congregational Association shall hold the same in trust, or dispose of said property or funds at their discretion, and apply the income or the proceeds of the sale to the building of churches or parsonages, or to the prosecution of missionary work within the State or country, or for any other purpose for which the property before was used, according to the discretion of said trustees; Provided, That all bequests or funds received from said church shall be sacredly used for the object or objects for which they were given, except those given for the benefit of said extinct church, which shall be used by said trustees as above provided. This section shall apply to any extinct Congregational church whether incorporated or in connection with an incorporated religious or ecclesiastical society.

SEC. 9. Any Congregational church, heretofore incorporated, and separate from a religious or ecclesiastical society or heretofore consolidated with its ecclesiastical society, may at a duly called meeting for the purpose, and by a two-thirds vote of those present and voting, place itself under the provisions of this act, the same as if incorporated under it.

SEC. 10. In all cases that may arise in any of the courts of the state touching churches incorporated under this act, or which by vote have put themselves under its provisions, whether cases in law or in equity, all other acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith shall be interpreted and construed in such manner as to give full force to all the rights and privileges hereby granted by this act to corporate churches.

SEC. 11. This act is ordered to take immediate effect.

An Act for the Consolidation in Congregational Churches of an Ecclesiastical Society With Its Church.

Act 47, Public Acts of Michigan, 1901.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

SECTION 1. That when any Congregational church which has a religious or ecclesiastical society with corporate powers in connection with it, shall, by a two-thirds vote of those entitled to vote therein and voting, at a meeting duly called for the purpose, express by ballot a desire to assume said corporate powers and manage all its affairs, both temporal and spiritual, it shall be the duty of the trustees of the said religious or ecclesiastical society, upon receiving official notice of said vote, at any time within three months after receiving such notice, to call a meeting of the said religious or ecclesiastical society, due notice for three weeks being given, for the purpose of effecting a union of said church and religious society; and the notice calling such meeting of the religious society shall specify the following objects of the said meeting, together with the time and place where the meeting is to be held, namely:

First, For the purpose of consolidating the religious society with the church in connection, shall the name of the society be changed to that of the church in connection?

Two, For the same purpose shall the membership of the society, after the expiration of one year from the time of this vote, be limited to the members of the church in connection, of legal age; or to such members together with the pew holders in said church, if otherwise qualified to vote?

Three, For the same purpose shall the time and place of holding the annual and other meetings of the religious society be so changed as to coincide with the time and place of holding the annual and other meetings of the church in connection?

SEC. 2. If these questions shall be answered in the affirmative by a two-thirds vote of the legal members of the religious society present and voting, and by ballot, at said meeting, then the said religious society shall thereby be consolidated with the church in connection, and the two shall thereafter be one body incorporate, possessed of all the records, rights, property, funds and franchises belonging to the said church and its religious society before their union in one corporate body.

SEC. 3. Any church governed according to the rules and usages of the Congregational denomination within the state, with which its religious society has been consolidated under the provisions of this act, shall be subject the provisions of the act, entitled "An act for the organization of corporate Congregational churches," the same as if it had been originally organized under the said act.

Approved April 8, 1901.

ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION.

ARTICLE I.

The name of this corporation shall be the Michigan Congregational Conference.

ARTICLE II.

The object of this Conference is and shall be, in general, the propagation of the religious faith and ecclesiastical polity of the Congregational Churches in connection with the said Conference, and with "The National Council of the Congregational Churches of the United States," and for the carrying out of this object, the reception, holding, investing, reinvesting and disbursement of such moneys and properties as may be given or bequeathed to it for any purposes within the scope of the Conference and more particularly the following:—

- (1) The planting and nurturing of Sunday Schools of said faith and order.
- (2) The planting and aiding of churches of said faith and order.
- (3) The helping of churches of said faith and order in erecting houses of worship and parsonages.
- (4) The careful oversight of the churches of said faith and order in conjunction with advisory committees chosen by the local associations of churches.
- (5) The relief of disabled ministers of said faith and order and of their families.
- (6) The extension of Christianity in foreign lands; the furtherance of Christian education; and co-operation with all the benevolent interests of said faith and order.
- (7) The providing for the training and examination of such applicants for licensure and ordination within said faith and order as have not received the collegiate and seminary education.
- (8) The providing a bureau of ministerial supply.
- (9) The collection and preservation of results of councils, and of records, minutes, books, etc., pertaining to churches and ministers of said faith and order.
- (10) The doing of whatever else may foster the growth, or promote the welfare or the interests of said faith and order, not inconsistent with the laws of the State of Michigan or of the United States.

ARTICLE III.

Members.—SECTION 1. Every Congregational church connected with a local Association in this State is entitled to representation in this Conference by its pastor, if a member in regular standing in some local association in this State, and by one delegate to be chosen by such church annually.

SEC. 2. All officers of the Conference, all ministers in regular standing in any local Association in the State, and all who may be members of the Board of Trustees in regular standing during any part of the annual State meeting are entitled to membership in the Conference.

ARTICLE IV.

Meetings.—The annual meeting of this Conference shall be held at such place as shall have been selected at the previous meeting, and shall begin on the third Tuesday in May, at 7:30 p. m.; if any exigency arise, which, in the unanimous opinion of the moderator, registrar and scribe, requires a special meeting of the Conference, or a change in either the time or place of the annual meeting thereof, it shall be competent for these officers to call such special meeting, or to make such change of time or place of holding the annual meeting, by giving thirty days' notice to the clerks of the churches and to the ministerial members. Notice of a special meeting must state its purposes.

ARTICLE V.

Quorum.—Thirty-five members shall be a quorum for the transaction of business.

ARTICLE VI.

Trustees.—The Board of Trustees of this Conference shall be composed of one representative from each local association of Congregational churches and ministers, one from each new association as formed, and six to be chosen from the state at large, provided that at least one-third of the entire number shall be laymen. They shall be elected by ballot on Wednesday, the second day of the meeting of the Conference. At the first election one-third shall be elected for a term of three years, one-third for two years and one-third for one year, and thereafter one-third for a term of three years and shall hold office until their successors are elected and qualified. No trustee shall be eligible for re-election after having served two consecutive terms until he shall have been out of office at least one year, it being construed that election for a portion of a term is equivalent to the full term. Said trustees shall annually elect ten members of their number as an Executive Committee, who shall have such power as may be vested in them by the Board of Trustees. The Board shall have power to fill vacancies in their membership until the next meeting of the Conference.

The Board of Trustees shall have charge of the property of the Conference, and shall transact either directly or through their Executive Committee, all of the affairs thereof, except as otherwise provided. They shall receive, hold, control, invest, reinvest and expend all the moneys or property given or bequeathed in trust or otherwise to the said Michigan Congregational Conference and shall apply the same, or the proceeds thereof, to the work of said Conference, or to such branch thereof as may be designated in the will, bequest or trust, in accordance with the laws of the State. The Trustees shall, by every means within their power, promote each and all of the objects of the Conference stated in Article II, and shall make annual report to the Conference of the administration of the funds, the work accomplished and the existing condition in each department of effort, and shall recommend such appropriation of moneys, the creation of such agencies and the initiation of such measures as in their judgment shall be best adapted to promote the interests of the said several departments. They shall carry into effect the action of the Conference upon their recommendations, but the appointment, oversight and control of all such agencies shall be vested in the Trustees and their Executive Committee, provided that any appointment of a superintendent shall be subject to confirmation of the Conference. A majority of the members elect of said Board shall constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE VII.

Said conference may hold real and personal property not to exceed in value the sum of $100,000.00 to be devoted exclusively to the purposes set forth in Article II.

ARTICLE VIII.

These Articles may be amended at any regular meeting of the Conference by a two-thirds vote of the members present, due notice having been given at the previous annual meeting, designating the subject and article to be affected.

ARTICLE IX.

The term of existence of this corporation is fixed at thirty years from the twelfth day of May, A. D. 1886.

CONSTITUTION.

(As amended June 9, 1910.)

PREAMBLE.

The Michigan Congregational Conference in voluntary fellowship for the promotion of the Church of Christ through common consecration and co-operation, makes confession of its devout faith in one God, our Father in Heaven, who has manifested himself to the world in Jesus Christ, His Son, our Lord, and in living fellowship abides in His children through His Spirit, our guide and comforter; and, believing that the principles of the Congregational system of church government are best adapted to the promotion of the welfare of the Christian church, and believing, moreover, that the extension and efficiency of the system would be greatly promoted by organizing a general Conference of the Congregational churches and ministers of Michigan, we therefore, to form such a Conference adopt the following:

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.

Name.—This Ecclesiastical Organization shall be called The Michigan Congregational Conference.

ARTICLE II.

Object.—The object of this Conference shall be as stated in the Articles of Association. It will aim to promote Christian fellowship among its members; to obtain and disseminate information relative to the churches throughout the State, our country and the world; and by prayers, counsels and faithful efforts, to advance the cause of truth and holiness, but it shall exercise no ecclesiastical control or authority over the churches and ministers belonging to it.

ARTICLE III.

Membership.—SECTION 1. The membership of this Conference shall be set forth in the Articles of Association.

SEC. 2. Any member of full legal age of any Congregational church connected with a local association in the State shall be eligible to election to any office in the Conference.

ARTICLE IV.

Officers.—SECTION 1. The officers of this conference shall be a moderator, assistant moderator, scribe, and auditor, elected annually by ballot, and assistant scribe chosen viva voce at each meeting. There shall also be a registrar and a treasurer elected triennially by ballot.

Duties of Officers.—SEC. 2. (1) The duties of moderator, assistant moderator, scribe and auditor shall be such as usually pertain to these offices.

(2) It shall be the duty of the registrar to keep a true record of all meetings and transactions of the Conference; to give due notice of the time and place of each meeting; to furnish churches with schedules for annual reports; to receive and distribute all schedules of statistics, programs and year books; to superintend the publishing of the minutes, and such other printing connected with his department as the Conference may order. He shall furnish the Conference, the Board of Trustees, the Executive Committee, and the local associations any information required by them on all matters relating to his department. For these services he shall receive such compensation as the trustees shall direct.

(3) The registrar of each local association shall be requested by conference with the advisory committee of that association, or by correspondence with the churches, to gather and send to the registrar of this Conference, after the meeting of the local association next preceding the meeting of this Conference, such a statement of the facts regarding the progress of the churches and the methods of their life and work as he may be able to gather, and the registrar shall, from these statements and from other available sources, present to the Conference such a general view of methods, of efforts and of progress, or the contrary, as he shall judge best fitted to stimulate the life and work of the churches of the State.

(4) The treasurer shall receive all moneys, shall be the custodian of all funds, and shall disburse the same upon the order of the Board of Trustees or their Executive Committee. He shall make an annual report of his doings to the Conference, accompanied by the auditor's certificate of the correctness of his accounts. He shall also give bonds for the faithful discharge of his duties in such sum as the Board of Trustees shall require and his compensation shall be determined by vote of the trustees.

ARTICLE V.

Meetings.—The annual meeting of this Conference shall be held at such place as shall have been selected at the previous meeting, and shall begin on the third Tuesday of May, at 7:30 p. m., and continue to such hour as the Business Committee may determine. If any exigency shall arise, which, in the unanimous opinion of the moderator, registrar and scribe, requires a special meeting of this body, or change in either the time or place of the annual meeting thereof, it shall be competent for these officers to call such special meeting, or to make such change upon giving thirty days' notice to the clerks of the churches and to the ministerial members. Notice of a special meeting must state its purpose.

ARTICLE VI.

Quorum.—Thirty-five members shall be a quorum for the transaction of business.

ARTICLE VII.

Trustees.—The number, method of election, powers and duties of the trustees shall be as prescribed in the articles of association of the Conference. They shall also have power to appoint, subject to the confirmation of the Conference, a Superintendent, who shall not be a member of the board, and who shall hold office during the pleasure of the board, but not for more than one year upon one appointment. The Board of Trustees or their Executive Committee shall also have power to fill any vacancy in any of the offices or committees of the Conference until the next annual meeting of the Conference.

It shall also be the function of this board to act as a consulting body and bureau of information in regard to all of the Congregational interests of the State; to co-operate with and supplement the work of the advisory committees in the local associations; to gather and keep on file all available information in regard to churches and ministers; to advise in matters submitted to them by the local associations their advisory or other committees, or by the churches and ministers; and in general, to unify and strengthen the churches, to elevate the standard of the ministry, and to promote the spirit of Christian fellowship. Provided, that in no way shall their action limit or interfere with the rights and liberties of the local churches.

It shall also be the duty of this board to keep in close touch with Christian institutions of learning, and to seek, by active measures, to inspire and promote to our churches, schools and homes, the gathering of worthy and competent recruits for the ministry.

ARTICLE VIII.

Superintendent.—A superintendent shall be appointed by the Trustees, at their meeting next preceding the annual meeting of the Conference, and subject to confirmation by the Conference, who shall have general oversight and direction of the work in the State, modified and restricted only by the powers given to the Trustees or their Executive Committee and such rules as they may adopt. The superintendent shall receive such compensation as may be fixed by the Trustees, subject to the approval of the Conference.

ARTICLE IX.

Committees.—SECTION 1. There shall be elected a Business Committee of six, three of whom shall serve for two years, three for one year, and thereafter three shall be chosen annually for a term of two years. One of the committee shall be the minister of the church with which the Conference votes next to meet. It shall be the duty of this Committee to arrange for and prepare a program and order of business for all meetings to be held by the Conference, and place a docket of the same in the hands of the moderator. Any member may introduce items of business but all business not previously submitted to the Business Committee shall be referred to this committee to be reported on before final adjournment.

SEC. 2. There shall be a Nominating Committee of four, to be elected by ballot, two to serve two years, two to serve one year, and thereafter two to be chosen annually for a term of two years, whose duty it shall be to make all nominations not otherwise provided for, and to keep a record of all the nominations confirmed by the Conference in a book to be provided by the registrar.

SEC. 3. An Obituary Committee of three shall be chosen annually, who shall make a fit report to this Conference of the service of those ministers who at their death were, or long had been, members of the body, and such lay members who had rendered conspicuous service to our churches.

SEC. 4. Such other committees as may be needed shall be appointed by the Conference or by the Board of Trustees, and any member of full legal age of any Congregational church within the State shall be eligible for such service.

ARTICLE X.

National Council.—This Conference appreciating the fellowship of the churches, and the need of comprehensive plans for advancing the Redeemer's Kingdom, will be represented by delegates in the National Council of Congregational Churches.

ARTICLE XI.

Amendments.—This constitution may be changed or amended at any regular meeting of the Conference by a two-thirds vote of the members present, provided notice shall have been given at the previous annual meeting, designating the subject and article to be affected.

BY-LAWS.

1. Organization.—The annual meeting shall be opened by the moderator or assistant, or, in their absence, the registrar or the minister of the church with which the Conference meets shall call the members to order, and shall preside until a moderator pro tem is chosen. Wednesday morning the Conference shall be organized by making a roll of members and electing scribes for the meeting. The moderator and assistant moderator shall be elected on the last day of the meeting and shall serve through the year and until their successors are elected.

2. Roll.—On the first evening of the meeting the registrar shall circulate and collect cards on which the ministers and delegates entitled to membership shall write their names, together with the names, respectively of their church and local associations. The registrar shall, from these cards, complete the roll and report such early the next day.

3. Advisory Members.—Only the business committee shall propose the names of advisory members.

4. Conduct of Business.—(1) Each session shall be opened and closed with prayer. The minutes shall be read for approval on the morning of each day and at the close of the meeting.

(2) The usage of like deliberative bodies shall be observed in the conduct of business, except as otherwise provided.

(3) When a motion is under debate, no motion shall be received except for adjournment, amendment, postponement, commitment division of the question, yeas and nays, or the previous question, viz.: SHALL THE MAIN QUESTION NOW BE PUT? and these motions, except for amendment, shall not be debated.

(4) In debate, no member, without leave of the body, shall speak more than ten minutes, nor more than once while others wish to occupy the floor.

5. Apportionment.—It is recommended that each local association pay, through its registrar to the treasurer of this Conference, at its annual meeting, whatever money may remain unpaid, of the amount apportioned to the churches of such association.

6. Committees.—Members of committees holding over from year to year shall be ex officio members of the Conference during their term of office.

7. Delegates to the National Council.—At each meeting of this Conference previous to a National Council, and on the third day of the meeting, delegates and alternates, half of each to be laymen, shall be chosen by ballot to represent the churches of this state in the next National Council. Vacancies that occur in the delegation may be filled by the business committee; but, in case this committee fail to appoint, the vacancies shall be filled by the delegation present at the session of the Council. And it shall be the duty of any delegate who may not be able to attend said Council, to notify, at his earliest convenience, the person first named on the business committee.

8. Roll to be Furnished Nominating Committee.—It shall be the duty of the registrar, early in the session of the body, to furnish the nominating committee a copy of the roll of members.

9. The fiscal year of the Michigan Congregational Conference shall begin on the first day of January and shall coincide with the calendar year. Provided, however, that this by-law shall not be understood to effect in any manner the time of holding the annual meeting, or of the election of officers, or of the beginning or ending of the term for which officers are elected.

10. Suspension of Rules.—Any of these rules, except the eleventh, may be suspended by a vote of two-thirds of the members present.

11. Amendment of Rules.—Any motion to amend or repeal any rule of this body may be read on two different days, and may be debated at each reading. At the first reading the question shall be: SHALL IT BE READ A SECOND TIME?

RESOLUTION.

Resolution adopted at the annual meeting May 19-20, 1909: That the annual meeting of the Board of Trustees be held as a stated policy on the opening day of the meeting of the State Conference for consultation and for action upon such matters as shall require attention.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

In accordance with the provisions of the Articles of Association and the Constitution of the Michigan Congregational Conference it is recommended to the churches and local associations that provision be made for the appointment of local advisory committees in the associations to act in conjunction with the trustees of the state body; it is also recommended that provisions be made according to specifications given herewith for the examination licensure and ordination of candidates for the ministry.

These recommendations pertain first to the appointment of local association advisory committees. It is recommended:

I. That each local association appoint a committee to be called the Advisory Committee, consisting of five members, of which the Moderator and Registrar of the association shall be members ex officio, and three other members, to be elected at the annual meeting, as follows: At the first election one member to be elected for one year, one for two years and one for three years; and thereafter one to be elected each year to serve three years. It is urged that special care be taken to secure the most competent membership for the Committee.

II. The functions of this Committee to be—

1. To know the churches and ministers within the bounds of the association, their character, needs, and conditions, and to keep a record of the same corrected to date and filed with the registrar.

2. To hold itself in readiness at all times to assist, inform, advise, and suggest, upon request, in cases where a change of pastorate, the organization of a church, the consolidation of fields or other exigencies effecting the common welfare of our churches, may call for such action.

3. To be in active and constant communication with the Board of Trustees of the State Conference; filing with it its local information; gathering from its larger files wider information; reporting to it at once any changes in fields or men; making investigation at its request, and aiding in all possible ways its effort to know Congregational life.

4. To act in conjunction with the pastor of the church where a meeting of the association is to be held, as the program committee; with a view to suggesting, from its knowledge of the field, vital and practical topics, presenting plans of progress or extension, and increasing the interest among both clerical and lay members of our churches, in the meetings and work of the association.

5. To be the Missionary Committee of the association.

These recommendations pertain second, to ordination and examination on the Course of Study.

I. Inasmuch as under our present system ministerial standing vests in the local association, it is recommended that to the same body be accorded the function of passing, after due examination, upon the credentials and fitness of candidates for ordination. It is suggested that the procedure be as follows:

1. A church seeking to induct into its pastorate a man who has not been ordained, may present the candidate for examination at a meeting of the local association with which the church is connected; notice of such intention having been previously given to the Registrar and printed on the program of the association meeting.

2. The said association to examine the candidate thus presented in regard to his intellectual, moral and spiritual fitness for the ministry, and if approved, to present a certificate of such approval to him and to the church presenting him.

3. Upon the basis of such certificate the church to proceed, either then or thereafter; to the ordination of the candidate through a council of fellowship; the same being either the association or a group of churches elected by the church and the candidate.

II. Inasmuch as this Conference has provided a course of study for those applicants for ordination who have not received collegiate and seminary education, it is recommended that, for the sake of uniformity, the examination of candidates on this course of study be conducted by a committee of the State Conference; and that the certificate of said committee that he has completed this course satisfactorily shall be required in all such cases by the local associations before it proceed to his examination for ordination.

RESOLUTION ADOPTED AT THE ANNUAL MEETING MAY 16-18, 1911.

That the Committee on Examination and Course of Study be instructed to hold the examination of licentiates on the opening day of the Conference.

COURSE OF STUDY.

Resolutions adopted at the annual meeting May 18-20, 1909: We endorse the resolution from your Committee on Examination and Course of Study that all Licentiates appear for examination at the annual meeting of the Conference before the Central Committee. We further recommend that such Licentiate be enrolled as First Year,

Second Year, Third Year candidates as the case may be, and that they be held to the Course of Study in such a way that it may be completed within the prescribed period.

The course is divided into two parts, covering topics of examination and books for reading. It is arranged for three periods of one year each.

LETTERS-MISSIVE AND OTHER FORMS.

I. LETTER-MISSIVE OF A LOCAL CHURCH TO A LOCAL ASSOCIATION FOR THE EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATE FOR ORDINATION.

The Church in

To the Churches composing the Association

Greeting:

DEAR BRETHREN—This church led by its best judgment and, as it believes with the Divine approval, desires to present Mr. to the Association at its forthcoming meeting in on the of 19....., as a candidate for Ordination to the Christian Ministry, and requests that he may be examined at that time in regard to his intellectual, moral and spiritual fitness for that office, and if approved, that he may be granted the customary certificate.

Wishing you grace, mercy and peace, we are yours in the fellowship of the churches.

} Committee.

NOTE 1. This letter is to be sent to the registrar of the association at least three weeks previous to the meeting of the association at which time it is desired that action be taken, and by him read to the churches convened.

2. If the church wishes the candidate to be ordained by the association at the same session in which he has been examined, it may add the following clause to the above letter.

“And the church further requests that the association proceed at this same session to the formal service of ordination.”

3. Notice of the examination, and of the ordination, if that is to take place at the same session, should be printed in the program of the association meeting; hence the necessity of three weeks' notice to the registrar.

4. If it is necessary, for any pressing reason, to call a special meeting of the association for the examination of a candidate, a request that such a meeting be called should be sent to the registrar, and when it is called by the moderator and registrar, and the date assigned, the above letter should be sent to the registrar at least two weeks before the time set for the meeting.

II. LETTER-MISSIVE TO THE CHURCHES FOR AN ORDAINING COUNCIL.

6. The Place of the Branch Sunday School—Rev. C. H. Harger.

7. Planning for the Future—Rev. J. W. Sutherland.

The Business Committee recommended that the next business session begin at 1:30 instead of 2 o'clock, in order to give special consideration to the Michigan Congregational Extension Fund.

The morning session closed with the benediction by Rev. Ernest Evans.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, JUNE 27.

The Conference was called to order at 1:45 p. m. by the Moderator. Prayer by Rev. Robert Houston.

Supt. J. W. Sutherland reviewed the Extension Fund plan and was followed by Mr. F. E. Bogart, Revs. John P. Sander-son, Victor F. Brown, Robert Houston, W. B. Dickinson, James S. Williamson, F. M. Chapin.

The Business Committee recommended several changes in the afternoon program, and the recommendation was adopted.

Rev. H. W. Hunt made a verbal report for the Committee on Necrology. (For formal report, see Document H.)

"The Christian Endeavor Work of Our State" was presented by Miss Kate M. Butterfield, State Organizer of the Y. P. S. C. E.

A verbal report for Benzonía Academy was made by Principal G. R. Catton.

Prof. R. A. Jernberg reported verbally for the Chicago Theological Seminary.

The Business Committee reported the receipt of an invitation from the First Congregational Church, Cadillac, for the 1913 session of the Conference. By vote of the Conference, the invitation was accepted.

The devotional period was in charge of Rev. W. B. Dickinson, the theme being, "Spiritual Re-enforcement Through the Preparatory and Communion Services. Revs. John P. Sander-son, Frank Davis, W. D. J. Stevenson closed the service with prayer.

Rev. J. P. Sanderson presented the report of the Commission of Nineteen and moved the adoption of the following resolutions, which, after some discussion, were adopted:

"The Michigan Congregational Conference expresses its appreciation of the work of the Commission of Nineteen in the elaborate and comprehensive report presented by them to the Churches.

"We are especially gratified with the unanimous approval by the Commission of the principal of direct representative control, by the Churches assembled in National Council, of all the benevolent interests of the denomination.

"We express our regret that in the solution of the problem before them the Commission did not more clearly apprehend the essential factors of simplicity, unity of interest, uniformity of method and immediate representative voice of the National Council in the direction of all of our Missionary interests.

"Believing these factors to be fundamental in a permanent Congregational order in the administration of our benevolent interests, we desire to express to the Commission and to the Churches the judgment of the Michigan Congregational Conference and we instruct our Registrar to forward to the Secretary of the Commission of Nineteen the foregoing preamble and the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the Michigan Congregational Conference expresses its approval of the proposal of the Congregational Home Missionary Society and of the Chicago Ministers' Union in substituting a Missionary Commission for the cumbersome and impracticable expedient recommended by the Commission of Nineteen for the direction of the work of the Home Land Society.

"Resolved, That we approve the action of the Chicago Ministers' Union in recommending that the voting membership of all our benevolent societies be on a uniform basis and be made to consist of the membership of the National Council and such additional members as may be expedient and legally necessary; and that pending necessary amendment of articles of incorporation of any of the benevolent societies provision be made for the election of the membership of the National Council upon nomination by that body for the terms at first of two and four and thereafter for four years.

"Resolved, that we approve of the larger function of the Secretaryship of the National Council, but this shall not be construed as a limitation upon the accepted Ministry at large of the Moderator."

The minutes of the Thursday morning and afternoon sessions were read, corrected and approved and the Scribe was instructed to complete the minutes of the evening session.

The suggestion of Rev. I. W. Stuart that the matter of making place for representation of the Woman's Associations in the Annual Conference was referred to the Business Committee.

The session was closed by prayer by Rev. Wm. Wiedenhoeft.

THURSDAY EVENING, JUNE 27.

The closing session of the Conference was convened by the Moderator at 7:30 o'clock.

The Committee on Resolutions presented the following report which was adopted.

"Resolved, That we express to the pastor and people of the First Congregational Church of Alpena the pleasure afforded us in being present at the Rededication and Memorial Service on Tuesday afternoon in connection with the Fiftieth Anniversary of the Church and that we extend to them our hearty congratulations on the large work of the past fifty years and the larger promise for the future.

"Resolved, That the members of the seventy-first meeting of the Michigan Congregational Conference take great pleasure in publicly acknowledging their obligations.

"To the public spirited citizens of Alpena who, recognizing in us the representatives of not only an influential ecclesiastical order, but of civic and temporal interests as well, have surrendered to us the keys of their thriving and beautiful city and made us their welcome guests;

"To the Committee on Arrangements, who have so thoroughly and thoughtfully provided for our convenience, comfort and profit;

"To the families who have received us into their homes and won our hearts by their warm hospitality;

"To the ladies of the Baptist and Methodist Churches who have so effectively and genially served our needs at the noon hours;

"To the press of the city, for the generous recognition it has given to our proceedings;

"To the speakers from abroad for the inspiration of their presence and their messages; and

"To the orchestra and choir for their pleasing and appropriate selections.

(Signed)

"CHARLES J. DOLE,

"H. P. COLLIN,

"Committee on Resolutions."

The retiring Moderator introduced to the Conference the Moderator-elect, Rev. I. W. Stuart.

The Scripture lesson was read by Rev. A. Walker. Prayer was offered by Rev. H. A. Putnam. The Conference sermon was preached by Rev. James S. Williamson, of Lansing, the subject being "The Message and the Ministry for Our Times."

The annual offering for Ministerial relief amounted to $25.51. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered by Revs. H. P. Collin and A. S. Donat. The benediction by Rev. A. S. Donat closed the sessions of the Conference.

F. E. BOGART, Moderator.

W. S. STEENSMA, Scribe.

F. PINCH, Assistant Scribe.

REPORT OF THE REGISTRAR.

As we said one year ago the general oversight and direction of the work in the state which was provided in the plan of "Oversight and Fellowship" adopted six years ago by our Conference placed in the hands of the Superintendent that intimate knowledge of the churches and their activities which enables him to make a much more comprehensive report of the work done and the prospects and needs of the churches than is possible for the Registrar to make from the data at his command. Moreover, a careful review of the condition of the churches is made difficult by reason of the inadequacy of the church letters that come to the State Registrar. Not only have we received reports from only two hundred and fifty of the three hundred and twenty churches for 1911, but many of these are hastily prepared, indefinite in their statements and furnish but little information along the lines of special inquiry.

We shall therefore confine this report mainly to the statistical facts developed by the reports of the churches with a very few conclusions which seem to be warranted by a study of the letters submitted.

The statistics bearing on matters of general interest are as follows: (and we have included here a comparison with the previous year and with the year 1906.)

In neither the total church membership, additions, or removals is there such difference between the figures for last year and for 1910 as to be the occasion of comment favorable or otherwise. Figures however can tell very little of the real work of a church. From the annual letters we learn that at least nine-tenths of the churches reporting speak most enthusiastically of their successes during the past year and most optimistically as to the future. One letter says: "Our growth during the past year has been mainly in the direction of more efficient service to the community and to the Kingdom of God," and we believe these words might be given as a fair statement of the work in general. Or to put it in different form, much more and more successful work has been done than previously toward getting men and women into the Kingdom and less emphasis than formerly given to the importance—the privilege and duty of church membership.

Were it the function of this report to give advice to the ministry, which it is not, we would modestly suggest that an occasional intelligent statement of the merits of the Congregational Church as the avenue of labor for a twentieth century Christian, and the importance of establishing active church relations to every Christian, might be wisely attempted. The church is too often considered as a Saint's rest rather than as a divinely ordained opportunity for Christian service.

The one point on which nearly every church letter grows eloquent is the magnificent work of the ladies' Societies, which, in the absence of any statement to the contrary, leads to the conclusion that the women are doing most of the real work of the church. We refer to this not because it is new, for it is not, but because it continues to be alarmingly true notwithstanding the vigorous efforts of the Brotherhood Movement to stir into activity the dormant love for Christian work which is inherent in every man. A most unfortunate idea prevails among men generally, that to engage actively in church work is an indication of effeminacy. The men are glad to have their wives and daughters zealous in the Sunday School, in the Social and the restaurant features of Church activity, for 'tis their nature to, while the lords of creation save their own hard knocks against Satan, for use along lines entirely apart from the Church. This blissful indifference of a majority of our men to the call of the Church for something more than a sympathy with the enterprise, is apparent to one who reads between the lines of the Church letters. Few remedies are suggested. The only one that seems at all feasible is that "If the pastor of the Alpena Church could obtain a temporary leave of absence and spend a year with each of our 329 Churches, establishing brotherhoods and remaining with each till it was thoroughly grounded in the possibilities and the feasibilities of the proposition, then something might be hoped for from the men."

The number of ministers in active service, and of those without charge of ordained ministers and supplies are so nearly identical with those of one year ago as to indicate an in-statu-quo condition that requires no comment. That we have less pastorless churches evidences the painstaking and judicious work of our Superintendent in the yoking of small Churches under the care of one pastor.

The slight increase in Sunday School attendance is encouraging but leaves much to be desired. We still have 2,000 less members than were reported members five years ago when our church membership was practically the same as now.

Although we have reported fewer men's societies than a year ago, there is reason to believe that we have here a survival of the fittest and that the future is to see larger results from this department of our church activities.

The figures showing the benevolences of the churches present an interesting study, but owing to the various demoralizing influences which have prevailed in this department of our work it is impossible to make any deductions that are worthy of consideration except one which is—the spirit which prompts giving does not prevail as it once did. A few churches report having adopted the apportionment plan with success; a few report that it fails to meet with the approval of their members. Many consider that it attempts to interfere with the liberty of choice so dear to every Congregationalist. Whatever may be the final outcome the immediate effect of the plan has been demoralizing to the giving of the Churches. Over $50,000 increase in the Home Expenses of the churches and over half a million dollars in the value of church property, coupled with the meagerness of the missionary gifts indicates that the idea that "Charity begins at home" is alarmingly prevalent but also that the larger provision for the social work of the church is receiving tardy and merited attention. Many churches have installed equipment for ministering to the social needs of their young people which are sure to bear fruit in saner lives and stronger characters of the rising generation.

The plan of "oversight and fellowship" now in operation for six years is more and more proving its great value to the churches.

Appreciation of the assistance received through the central administration board is expressed in very many of the church letters.

The conclusion of the whole matter is that the reports of the churches indicate an enthusiasm in the work devolved upon them, a growing clearness of vision as to what to do and how to do it, a cheerful determination to do more and better work in the future.

There have come into the pastoral service of the Conference from without the state during the past year the following—twenty-six in all:

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT.

OFFICE AND FIELD.

The Superintendent's time has been divided about equally between the office and the field. From the demands that have been made upon him it may be inferred that the service which is being rendered to our pastors and churches through our state organization is meeting a great need. The work in the field has been shared with General Missionary C. B. Fellows, and Sunday School Missionary C. H. Harger who have given practically their entire time to it. After a service of nearly four years in our state as General Missionary, Rev. C. B. Fellows withdrew from the work the first of June. He has been a faithful and efficient servant to our weaker churches and has made many friends. It is not expected that his place will be filled during the present year. The Superintendent has traveled much more during the year than formerly. He has also made more visits to the churches, and has attended more conferences and met with more committees in the interests of the larger work of the denomination and the Kingdom. He has tried to relate all the life and work of the churches to the larger interests, believing that by so doing the churches would put on more strength. He has attended five conferences in four different parts of the state with the Michigan Federation of Churches. He has also met with the Detroit City Union which has invited him to attend their meetings regularly as a corresponding member, with a view of bringing the city and state work more closely together. Invitations to take an active part in the Men's Forward Religious Movement, the Local Option Campaign, and other general movements have all been declined because the work of administration has taxed the Superintendent's time and strength to the utmost.

COOPERATION OF LOCAL ASSOCIATIONS.

At the last session of the Conference, recommendations were made to the local associations concerning three measures, namely: First, The wisdom of having all licentiates appear for examination before the State Committee on Course of Study at the meeting of the Conference; second, the reaffirmation of approval of the general purpose and methods of the Apportionment Plan, emphasizing at the same time the need of carefully safe-guarding the state work; third, the increase of the state tax from four to seven cents per member. These recommendations were brought to the attention of the registrar of each local association early in the fall, and, with one exception, they were brought by the registrars to the attention of the local associations and were unanimously approved. One registrar reported that he had inadvertently overlooked the Superintendent's letter relating to the recommendations. The matter will be brought again to the attention of the registrar of this association in time for consideration at the meeting in the fall.

ORDINATION OF LICENTIATES.

The six licentiates who were recommended by the Committee on Examination and Course of Study, were examined by their respective local associations regarding their moral and spiritual fitness for the ministry and were ordained. In each instance the ordination was by the local association and the occasion was felt to be one of marked interest and benefit to the church and the community. This method of procedure is meeting with general favor by both churches and licentiates.

TWO IMPORTANT MEETINGS.

Two meetings of unusual interest have been held during the year. The first was an informal conference of about sixty ministers which was held at Plymouth Church, Lansing, December 12 and 13. The ministers met at the call of the Superintendent for a frank discussion of the problems of their work and for fellowship. Among the topics treated were: The problems of the over-churched community; the practical encouragement to weaker churches; the importance of longer pastorates; the place of the church in modern society, and its message for the man of today. A joint dinner with the Lansing Ministers' Association and an address by Dr. R. J. Campbell of London, brought the meeting to a close. By general testimony the spiritual uplift of the Conference was pronounced and the fellowship warm and genuine. The pastors pooled their expenses and voted heartily to commend the plan to the State Conference. The second meeting was a Country Pastors' Institute held in Olivet, March 6 to 12. This was the third institute of the kind that has been held in Michigan under Congregational auspices. About thirty persons were present. The facilities of the church and college, and the hospitality of the homes were all placed at the service of the institute. President Davis of the Chicago Seminary gave two days to the institute, and Dr. Williamson of Lansing, was present one day. President Lancaster, Professors Foster, Miller and Nadal, and Dr. Curtis gave addresses. These addresses covered a wide range of topics and were most helpful. There was also free discussion concerning various problems of the country and village church. Among the resolutions adopted was the following: "We declare our conviction that such group conferences of pastors should continue as a definite part of our state work, to be held at such times and places as may be conveniently arranged for. We gratefully record our appreciation of the fellowship expressed by the contributing churches, pastors and laymen who have made the institute possible, and we endorse the plan of pooling expenses."

HOME MISSIONS.

The Home Missionary situation does not change materially from year to year. Each year a few churches come to self-support, either through increased financial ability or by yoking with other churches. But this gain is apt to be off-set by other churches, formerly self-supporting, coming back for various reasons, upon the Home Missionary list. This unstable condition is a relic of the vanishing lumber era in our state and will probably continue for years to come. Certain it is, that some of our Home Missionary churches will be a charge on our treasury indefinitely. In quite a number of instances the Congregational Church is the only religious organization in the place and our duty is clearly to stand back of the church as long as it shows a spirit of cooperation in serving the community. Wherever it is possible to strengthen the situation by yoking churches, that is being done. Not much has been accomplished as yet through federation, but the signs are favorable for some good work along that line in the near future. At the present time a proposition is being considered with another denomination to make an exchange of two fields consisting of two churches each. Each field is remote from denominational fellowship which makes it very difficult to care for the churches, but if the proposed exchange is made the churches will then come into close touch with other churches of the same denomination. This will be a distinct gain in every way. A notable case of development under Home Missionary auspices is Plymouth Church Jackson, which came to self-support at the end of last year. Five years ago the church changed its location and erected a new building. Since that time the church has grown in numbers and in strength. All obligations except those to the Church Building Society have been paid. The apportionments to all the seven benevolent societies were met in full and, in three instances, they were exceeded; in addition considerable sums were given to other worthy local and state causes amounting in all to $272. During the past year 107 churches and out-stations have been cared for. Sixty-eight missionaries have been in commission who have rendered a total of nearly 600 months' service, the equivalent of a full year's service for fifty men. Twenty-eight missionaries have ministered to a single church; forty have served fields embracing from two to four churches. The churches receiving aid, together with the amount received by each church, are given in detail in the report of the treasurer.

SUNDAY SCHOOL MISSIONS.

The work of establishing and caring for branch and mission Sunday schools is being carried on vigorously and with much discretion by our Sunday school missionary Rev. C. H. Harger. It would not be difficult to establish a large number of mission schools throughout the state, but it is considered unwise to plant them where we cannot take care of them. The present policy is to use them as out-stations and feeders of our village and country churches where they can receive the care of our pastors and come more or less closely into fellowship with our churches in the neighborhood. There is a growing feeling of responsibility on the part of some of our churches for the moral and spiritual welfare of the surrounding country, and some of our pastors are showing great zeal in expanding the limits of their parishes so as to include the country Sunday school. In some parts of the state where development is going on, our mission Sunday schools are numerous and form close connecting links between our churches. An interesting example of this is found in the four counties extending westward from Alpena to Grand Traverse Bay. In Montmorency County we have four Home Missionary churches and nine branch and mission Sunday schools, which are practically the only religious organizations in the county, except at Hilman on the extreme eastern border of the county. At the close of the year we had forty-three branch and mission schools with a membership of 1672.

MICHIGAN CONGREGATIONAL EXTENSION FUND.

The Michigan Congregational Extension Fund, the creation of which was authorized at the last annual meeting of the Conference, as a permanent fund for the purpose of initiating new work and of placing old work in strategic places upon a more adequate basis, which Fund was endorsed at the same time by the State Brotherhood, with the suggestion that two thousand pledges of $1 each year for five years be secured from among the Brotherhoods of the state, has been brought to the attention of local associations, conferences, brotherhoods, churches and individuals, as far as possible. Special invitations to present the plan have been accepted by the Superintendent from the Detroit Brotherhoods, the Muskegon Brotherhood, and Park Church Grand Rapids. Other invitations were received but on account of pressing engagements the Superintendent was unable to accept them.

Perhaps twelve of fifteen persons have been spoken to privately about the Fund. The result is that 192 pledges have been received amounting to $552 a year for five years. Among these subscribers are forty-six sisters whose pledges amount to $75, an indication that the Brotherhoods are not to be permitted to take over this Fund entirely into their own hands. The trustees of the First Church Detroit have also pledged $1,000 to the Fund, making a little more than $1,500 available at this time. One brother over eighty years of age has promised the Superintendent to bequeath all his property amounting to about $6,000, to the Fund. This is the tangible result of the first year's canvass. Wherever the plan has been presented it has been strongly endorsed and almost no criticism of it has been heard. At the conference of ministers in Lansing last December the plan was carefully considered and a resolution was unanimously passed expressing the belief that the seventy-fifth anniversary of the State Conference in 1916 should be celebrated with special services and that a prominent feature of the occasion should be the completion of an endowment of $75,000 for this Fund. As explained last year when the Fund was created, it is not expected that the churches will be asked to contribute, as churches, to this Fund, but that the appeals will be addressed first, to the Brotherhoods for a large number of small pledges each year for the next five years, as an expression of their interest in the Fund, and second, that efforts be made to interest a number of individuals who are able to give in terms of hundreds and thousands of dollars, for it is only through these larger gifts that the funds necessary for the work can be secured.

IN CONCLUSION.

The plan which has come to be known within the past few years as the Michigan Plan is being carried out, in the main, consistently and with gratifying results. At the beginning of the Superintendent's term of service six years ago, there was prepared for him a list of more than forty dormant churches. Some of these sleeping churches have been revived and are now quite active; some of them have died and have been buried; efforts are being made to awaken the remaining ones out of their sleep. It has been the general policy to revive and strengthen the weak churches in our fellowship as the first step in a progressive movement which will open the way for the organization of new work. Several new organizations of this kind have recently been effected and others are now being considered. We are confronted with two great needs. The first need is more money. A number of causes have contributed to the present financial strain, among which three may be mentioned: First, a misunderstanding of the purpose of the Apportionment Plan which has led many churches to divert funds from our Home Missionary treasury in order to contribute more than formerly to the other benevolent societies; second, when in 1910 the fiscal year was changed to end December 31 instead of March 31, many churches failed to contribute their quota for the nine months from March 31 to December 31; third, the Easter offerings for the present year have fallen much below the average. It is evident that unless the churches continue to contribute to the state work according to their former standard, Home Missionary aid will have to be withdrawn from many of our churches which will mean their inevitable and speedy decay. The second need is more men. We are always short of men. When the difficulties of the field and the meager compensation of our Home Missionary pastors are considered, it is a marvel that we have so many good and effective ministers in the service of our small churches. Good recruits are being secured every year. But there is always need of the earnest prayer that the Lord of the harvest may send forth more laborers into His vineyard. Meanwhile there is going on in many parts of Michigan a rapid and even radical transformation. The evanescent has disappeared or is fast disappearing; the foundations of the Michigan that is to be are rapidly being laid. If Congregationalism is to continue to serve the moral and spiritual welfare of our commonwealth as it has done most signally in the past, there is need of consecration to the uttermost.

Respectfully submitted,
J. W. SUTHERLAND,
Superintendent.

The Jubilee Fund of $5,000 was constituted by the Board of Trustees of the Michigan Congregational Association from bequest of Mrs. C. L. Ford, of Ann Arbor, with stipulation in bequest that the proceeds thereof should be used for the cause of Home Missions in Michigan. This fund is invested in Jackson (Mich.) Gas Company Bonds Nos. 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, $1,000 each. Due 1937, interest 5 per cent., payable April 1 and November 1.

The C. L. Ford Fund was constituted by the Board of Trustees of the Michigan Congregational Association from bequest of Corydon L. Ford, of Ann Arbor, which made the Association residuary legatee and placed no restrictions upon the use of the proceeds. This fund is invested as follows:

Duluth, Rainy Lake and Winnipeg Railroad Bond, No. 52, for $1,000, due January 1, 1916, interest 5 per cent., payable July 1 and January 1.

Flint (Mich.) Gas Company Gas Bonds, No. 120, $500. Due November 1, 1924, interest 5 per cent., due May 1 and November 1.

La Porte (Ind.) Gas Co. Bond, No. 71, $500, due April 1, 1925, interest 5 per cent., due April 1 and October 1.

Jackson (Mich.) Gas Company Bonds, Nos. 220, 221, 222, 223, 224, and 240, $1,000 each, due 1937, interest 5 per cent., payable April 1 and October 1.

Four pieces of real estate in Detroit, three of which were sold some years ago, and five house lots at Des Plaines, Ill., originally belonged to the C. L. Ford fund. Also belonging to this fund is a house and lot in Detroit, sold to Clark Sackett on contract. There is now a balance of $1,403.20 due on this property. The Des Plaines lots belonging to this fund are of very little present value. Responsible parties who are acquainted with the property advise holding the same for a possible increase in value.

The Ministerial Relief Fund was constituted by the Board of Trustees from the bequest of $5,000 of Mrs. C. L. Ford, of Ann Arbor. This was subsequently increased by further bequest of C. L. Ford, of Ann Arbor, and has grown by the surplus of receipts over disbursements. The securities of this fund consist of:

Grand Rapids (Mich.) Gas Company Bond, No. 741, $1,000, due February 1, 1915, interest 5 per cent., due February 1 and August 1.

Jackson (Mich.) Gas Company Bonds, Nos. 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, $1,000 each, due 1937, interest 5 per cent., due April 1 and October 1.

La Porte (Ind.) Gas Company Bonds, Nos. 3, 4 and 5, $500 each. No. 126, $1,000, due April 1, 1925, interest 5 per cent., payable April 1 and November 1.

There is also an investment of $1,100 of this fund in a mortgage on real estate in the City of Lansing. The property is appraised at $2,200.

The Benzonia Academy Fund was constituted by the gift of Miss Emily B. Dickinson, of Romeo, to the Association in the interest of Benzonia Academy under terms which are given in document in our possession. The bonds in which this fund was invested matured February 1, 1911. Since that date $1,600 of this fund has been invested in two mortgages on property in Benzie county, and $3,400 is to the credit of the fund on our books.

The Michigan Congregational Conference also owns property at Old Mission, appraised at $1,200. This property is at present occupied by Rev. Leroy Warren, D. D., formerly Superintendent of Home Missions for Michigan.

Another piece of property, formerly a parsonage at Mio, Michigan, was deeded to the Conference July 27, 1906. This property is appraised at $500.

The securities above referred to and papers pertaining to real estate belonging to the Association, are in the custody of the treasurer and are deposited in a safety deposit vault of the Lansing State Savings Bank.

I hereby certify that I have examined the books and vouchers of C. A. Gower, Treasurer of the Michigan Congregational Conference and find them to be correct. I have also found that the securities and other papers referred to in the text of this report are in the possession of the Treasurer, as stated.

FRANK B. McKIBBIN.

Lansing, Michigan, June 18, 1912.

Auditor.

CONTRIBUTIONS FOR HOME MISSIONS FROM CHURCHES IN DETAIL.

Totals in first column are the apportionments voted by the Conference to the several Associations, and the amounts assigned to individual churches are those voted by the local associations, and the sum of the latter does not necessarily agree with the total at the foot of the column. In the second column, where several payments have been made, the sum only is given. Contributions to the National Society are not included.

REPORT OF BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

The Board of Trustees of the Michigan Congregational Conference submits the following report:

During the year there have been held four meetings of the Executive Committee and two meetings of the Board of Trustees. For the first time in the history of the Conference representatives of the W. B. M. I., and the W. H. M. U., have had a place on the Board. It is felt that this representation gives the Board a larger and more correct view of the work in the Conference and is beneficial in many ways.

The report of the Executive Committee to the Board of Trustees dealing with the routine and details of administration, discloses a wide and varied range of activities and gives evidence that this service of counsel and cooperation on behalf of the churches is of great value and is meeting with increasing appreciation.

A committee on the Apportionment Plan was appointed consisting of Mr. F. E. Bogart, Chairman, Superintendent J. W. Sutherland, Secretary, Mr. C. B. Stowell, Rev. A. H. Stoneman, Rev. I. W. Stuart, Mrs. C. R. Wilson, and Mrs. L. P. Haight. The committee was instructed to prepare a circular letter embodying the action taken at the last annual meeting of the Conference and giving such general information regarding the Plan as might be considered helpful. The committee was also instructed to prepare Benevolence Pledge Cards indicating the percentage basis that was assigned to Michigan by the Apportionment Plan Commission. The circular letter and pledge cards were prepared and were mailed to all pastors and churches January 2, 1912. The following recommendations of the Apportionment Plan Commission were heartily endorsed: That a missionary budget based on the apportionment to each church be formally presented to the church and adopted by it; that an every-member canvass be made in the church and Sunday school; that weekly contributions be encouraged; that a program of education be adopted for the purpose of bringing the work and needs of each society to the attention of the church; that quarterly remittances be made to the treasurers of the societies; that a missionary committee be appointed by the church to secure the carrying out of these plans.

The agreement with the Congregational Sunday School and Publishing Society which was made three years ago, was renewed for another year beginning March 1, 1912. By the terms of this agreement all funds received from the state, except such as may be designated for special purposes, are to be divided equally between the Sunday School and Publishing Society and the Michigan Congregational Conference and these two organizations are to support jointly a Sunday school missionary in the state. All offerings for this work are to be sent to the state treasurer at the Lansing office, and all such payments from the churches and Sunday schools will be credited to their apportionments.

In carrying out the action of the Conference at its last meeting a committee consisting of Superintendent J. W. Sutherland, Rev. A. Hadden, Dr. C. W. Hitchcock, Attorney J. S. Hurd, and Attorney C. C. Wood, was appointed to draft a new bill or bills regarding the Organization of Congregational Churches, and the Consolidation of Congregational Churches with their Societies, and to aid in securing the enactment of such measures at the next legislature. The committee has the work well in hand and is in close touch with the Executive Committee.

The receipts and disbursements for the year and the financial condition at the close of the year are presented in the report of the treasurer.

The action taken by the local associations on the recommendations of the Conference at its last meeting, as well as the general movement and condition of the work in the state, are presented in the report of the Superintendent.

Your Board of Trustees makes the following recommendations:

1. That in order to secure a sufficient number of trustees within a convenient distance of Lansing from whom there may be chosen an Executive Committee of ten members whose presence may usually be counted on at the meetings of the Executive Committee, Article VI, paragraph 1, of the Articles of Association, be amended by substituting the word six for the word four in the fourth line of the first sentence as printed in the state minutes of 1911, page 13, so as to read, "The Board of Trustees of this Conference shall be composed of one representative from each local association of Congregational churches and ministers, one from each new association as formed, and six to be chosen from the state at large, provided that at least one-third of the entire number shall be laymen."
2. That we express our appreciation of the great value of the Country Pastor's Institute which has been held three times in our state under the direction of Superintendent Sutherland, and that we commend the Institute as worthy of a permanent place in our state activities.
3. That in order to secure a larger representation of pastors at the annual meeting of the State Conference, and in order that the expenses may be equalized, each church be urged to pay the traveling expenses of its pastor and that these expenses be pooled according to a plan to be worked out by the Board of Trustees.
4. That in view of the high cost of living which is making it increasingly difficult to secure a sufficient number of well equipped ministers for our country and village churches, we designate $800 and parsonage as a reasonable minimum salary for a married man, and we urge the churches to make an earnest effort to reach that standard at the earliest date possible.
5. That in order to enable unordained men who may become pastors of our churches, to perform the functions of licentiates without undergoing the embarrassment of waiting, in some instances, long periods until the meeting of the local association, we recommend that each local association authorize the local advisory committee to issue, at its discretion, a license upon the recommendation of the State Superintendent, said license to expire at the time of the next meeting of the local association.
6. That we accept the amount assigned us by the Apportionment Commission as a standard to be attained ultimately, and that as a step toward this goal we proceed as follows for the year 1913: That the amount assigned to the state be arrived at by fixing an adequate sum for Home Missions including the work of the Detroit and Grand Rapids City Unions, to which shall be added the average sum contributed to each of the remaining six societies for the past three years, plus an amount which may be considered equitable and wise to the Committee hereinafter named to carry out the provisions of this recommendation; that the total amount shall be apportioned to the churches on a basis to be worked out by the Superintendent in cooperation with the president of the W. B. M. I., the president of the W. H. M. U., the local advisory committee of each local association, and in correspondence with the churches; and in order to prevent oversight and confusion growing out of frequent changes in the officers of the local association, that all matter pertaining to the Apportionment Plan be prepared and mailed to the pastors and churches as early in the fall as possible by the Lansing office under the direction of the Superintendent. Further, in view of the National Home Missions propaganda planned for the fall of this year culminating in Home Mission Week November 17-24, we recommend that throughout the state of Michigan a special campaign be inaugurated in the interest of Missions. To this end we instruct our board of Trustees to appoint a suitable committee who shall plan and carry on an educational campaign along Missionary lines to include every church in our denomination in the State.

7. That, as a condition of granting Home Missionary aid to any church, the church and parsonage property be secured by deed or otherwise, to the State Conference, so as to prevent the alienation of the church property in the event of the church disbanding or passing out of Congregational fellowship. Provided, however, That the Board of Trustees, or their Executive Committee, may at their option, provide as such condition of granting Home Missionary aid to any church, that the repayment of such aid and of aid theretofore granted, be secured to the State Conference by mortgage or in some other suitable manner. And that the Board of Trustees, through their Executive Committee, be and are instructed to prepare the necessary forms and to put the said condition into effect, from and after January 1, 1913.

8. That the percentage basis in the division of funds for Home Missions contributed by Michigan to the State and National Societies be as follows: 85 per cent to be given to the Michigan Congregational Conference and 15 per cent to the Congregational Home Missionary Society up to $19,000, exclusive of legacies, and that all sums above $19,000, except such as are pledged for special purposes, shall be given to the National Society.

9. That Mr. F. E. Bogart be nominated for trustee of the Congregational Home Missionary Society.

10. That Superintendent J. W. Sutherland succeed himself at his present compensation.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE COURSE OF STUDY.

There have been present at this meeting of the Conference twenty-one licentiates. Three written examinations have been set, a number of personal and private interviews held with several of the men, and essays and sermons have been presented. The committee has been assisted in the work of examination of papers, sermons and essays by President Lancaster, and Superintendent Sutherland has afforded it the advantage of his valuable advice.

The committee report the following action, taken in the light of all the ascertained circumstances of each particular case:—

The committee register as student to pursue the first year of the course of study during the following year, Mr. H. W. W. Allen (not present at the conference but admitted to the course of study by correspondence.) Advanced to second year are Mr. Burton Snook and Mr. R. T. Caldwell; and to the third year Messrs. Heafield, Skidmore and Ainslie. And the following under different conditions are adjudged to be ready for ordination and are recommended to their local associations for that purpose, namely, G. H. Alexander, W. C. Bowins, Percy

V. Dawe, Robert Dalzell, George D. Lyford, Wm. Parker, Ralph W. Paul, E. J. Sipes, Arthur Walker, H. J. L. Wooley, Edwin Wooley. Mr. G. R. Catton, the principal of Benzonia Academy, who has been drafted by the churches liberally for various and almost continuous service, is also recommended, at the desire of his ministerial brethren, to his association for ordination. Messrs. Oberlin and Lucas are put upon a special course of reading and study, with a view of completing the work by the next meeting of the conference; and Mr. A. E. Hill is referred to his association for fuller examination of his credentials, and upon their being found satisfactory, is recommended for ordination, or for reception to full ministerial standing, as may seem most orderly. Mr. Holman, who contemplates entering College a year hence, is referred to Mr. Catton for advice in preparation for entering College.

The committee feel themselves obliged to add in closing their report, a note of their appreciation of the cordial spirit in which their efforts have been met by the candidates and others interested, and also a word of thanks. And they join with the conference in congratulating the young men who have come through the patient labor of the study and the pastoral office to this good degree of preparation for further responsibilities and labors.

Respectfully submitted,
FRANK H. FOSTER,
Chairman of committee.

Alpena, June 26, 1912.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

To the Board of Trustees of the Michigan Congregational Conference:

Your Committee on Ministerial Relief beg to report as follows:

Comparing the figures for 1911 with those of 1909 (1910 was an incomplete year because of the change in date of closing books from April to December,) we find a favorable situation. In 1909 the receipts from all sources were $1,647.99; in 1911 $1,804.61. In 1909 the amount paid to beneficiaries was $1,003.00 in 1911 only $835. The fund has thus been growing altho this past year there were two special grants of $25 each outside of the regular payments. The cash balance December 31, 1911, was $1,450 more than that of April 1909. It is hoped and expected by the committee that it will be possible in the future to make to worthy beneficiaries larger appropriations than the $100 per year which has been the regular amount in the past.

Respectfully submitted,
A. H. STONEMAN,
WM. H. STRONG,
F. A. FISH,
Committee.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON INTERDENOMINATIONAL COMITY.

The Committee on Interdenominational Comity begs leave to submit the following report:

The Michigan Federation of Churches at present embraces the following denominations: Baptist, Congregational, Episcopal, (Diocese of Michigan) Methodist Episcopal and Presbyterian. The work of the Federation is carried on through an Executive Committee composed of four members from the M. E. church, and three members from each of the other four denominations. The Executive Committee met in Detroit November 14, 1911, and December 19, 1911, and representatives of the Committee held district meetings in Grand Rapids April 23, 1912, in Saginaw April 30, 1912, and in S. S. Marie June 12, 1912. At all these meetings your Committee was represented by one or two of its members. In addition to the members of the Executive Committee there were present at these meetings, by invitation, representatives, both lay and clerical, of various denominations, some of which have not yet formally united with the Federation.

The general discussion of statistics and principles which characterized the earlier meetings of the Federation has given place to earnest consideration of specific cases of various kinds which have been submitted to the Federation by the denominations interested. Acting on the advice of the Executive Committee some of these cases have been satisfactorily adjusted and others are in process of adjustment. In the counsels of the Committee the freest discussion has been encouraged and it has always been characterized by perfect good feeling. Misunderstandings have been corrected, personal prejudices have been removed, antagonisms have been softened, and a fraternal spirit has been engendered. In one badly over-churched county in the state a careful survey is being made under the auspices of the Executive Committee with the view of readjusting the work of several denominations, in the interest of economy and efficiency. It is the belief of your Committee that the Federation is destined to do an increasingly good work in advancing the cause of the Kingdom throughout our state.

We deem it wise to utter a word of caution. Congregationalists have always been in favor of federation. It was through the action of this Conference at its annual meeting four years ago, that steps were taken which resulted in reviving the Michigan Federation of Churches which had become dormant and inactive. The principle of federation is now in the air and the temptation will be strong for some of our churches to act impulsively and independently in giving way to other organizations. Such precipitate action would be likely to create more divisive spirit than it would cure. Careful consideration should always be given to the legal and moral rights involved. A loss or gain sustained in one part of the state should, if possible, be made good by a corresponding gain or loss in some other part of the state. It is only fair to our Congregational interests that quid pro quo should be given somewhere. This can not always be done on the spot but when the state is the unit a satisfactory balance may be obtained. This principle applies equally to all denominations.

We submit the following recommendations:—

1. That we earnestly advise any of our churches which may be considering the wisdom of consolidating with churches of other denominations, to confer with the members of the Executive Committee of the Michigan Federation of Churches elected by this Conference before taking any decisive steps in the matter.

2. That three members of this Conference be elected as members of the Executive Committee of the Michigan Federation of Churches to serve for one year.

Respectfully submitted,
J. W. SUTHERLAND,
J. P. HUGET,
Committee.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON NECROLOGY.

Seventy-first Annual Meeting of the Michigan Congregational Conference, June 25-27, 1912, Alpena, Mich.

REV. IRA W. BELL.

After forty-three years in the ministry, died June 15, 1912, in Hillsdale, Mich., at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. S. Mathewson, of paralysis.

Mr. Bell came to Michigan from New York state in 1858 and cleared a farm in St. Joseph river valley in Wright township, with the aid of his wife, and built a log cabin. The farm is now one of the finest in southern Michigan.

He taught school during the early years of his residence in Michigan.

He began preaching for the free Methodists in 1869, while yet teaching and served numerous circuits for that denomination. He endured all the hardships that attended the pioneer circuit riders. On one circuit he had 12 appointments with 135 miles to travel and had one assistant. For six years he traveled as presiding elder through southern Michigan and northern Ohio. Later he served churches at Morenci and Pittsford, Mich.

In the latter years of his ministry he allied himself with the Congregationalists and held pastorates at Prattville, Edmore and Roscommon.

After his retirement he lived for a time in Waldron and then with his daughters, Mrs. G. W. Hursh of Luckley's Corners, at whose home Mrs. Bell died two years ago, and Mrs. J. S. Mathewson, at whose home Mr. Bell died.

Even after giving up regular pastoral work, Mr. Bell frequently supplied for other ministers and was much sought after by old pupils and parishioners and their families to officiate at funerals, weddings and christenings. He had married three generations of one family. For the past two years he had been too feeble for even these engagements. It is said that he possessed a lovable, kindly character which endeared him to those with whom he came in contact, and diplomacy and executive ability which made dissensions unknown and steady growth the rule in all the churches which he served, and that he was a believer in old-fashioned religious doctrines but liberal in his acknowledgment of the rights of others to their own viewpoint.

Mr. Bell leaves, besides two daughters, three grandsons, Lewis W. Bailey of Detroit, Arden S. Mathewson and Gerald B. Hursh, and two great grandchildren, Russell O. and Clara Bell Bailey.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY WM. HUNT,
MAC H. WALLACE.

Alpena, Mich., June 25-27, 1912.

MICHIGAN HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Officers, 1912-1913.

President.....Rev. H. A. Putnam, Ludington.
 Vice President.....Mr. E. B. Perry, Bay City.
 Secretary and Treasurer.....C. A. Gower, Lansing.

Articles of Association.

ARTICLE I.

The name assumed by this corporation, and by which it shall be known in law, is the Michigan Home Missionary Society.

ARTICLE II.

The object of this Society shall be to promote the organization of Congregational churches in Michigan, to aid churches in the support of their local ministry and work, to co-operate with the national Congregational Home Missionary Society in the cause of missions in other states and territories, and to diffuse Christian knowledge within this State by missionaries, publication and such other means, agencies and instrumentalities as may be necessary therefor.

ARTICLE III.

The annual meeting for the election of officers and the transaction of other business shall be held on the Thursday next after the third Tuesday of May in each year, at the hour of nine o'clock a. m., at the place where the annual meeting of the Michigan Congregational Conference shall be held. If any exigency arise which necessitates a change in the time of the annual meeting of the Michigan Congregational Conference the date of the annual meeting of this Society may, by vote of the officers, upon due notice, be changed to correspond with that of the annual meeting of the Michigan Congregational Conference.

ARTICLE IV.

The trustees of the Michigan Congregational Conference shall be ex-officiis the trustees of the said Society and shall have in relation to the business, funds and all other interests of said Society the same powers, rights and duties, which are given them as trustees of said Michigan Congregational Conference.

The annual meeting of the trustees shall be held at the time of, or immediately after the annual meeting of the Michigan Congregational Conference, and eleven members of the Board shall constitute a quorum.

Said Board shall receive, hold, control, invest, reinvest and expend all moneys or property given or bequeathed in trust or otherwise to the Michigan Home Missionary Society and shall apply the same or the proceeds thereof, to the work of said Society or to such branch thereof as may be designated in the will or bequest of the donors: Provided, however, That the Society may make such application through the agency of the Board of Trustees of the Michigan Congregational Conference and its agencies, if in their judgment it shall seem desirable so to do. Said Board of Trustees or the executive committee thereof may be made the agents of the Board of Trustees of the Michigan Home Missionary Society for the purpose of making such application, with such powers in relation thereto as may be granted by the Board of Trustees of said Society.

ARTICLE V.

The membership of this Society shall consist of the members of the Michigan Congregational Conference, and of life members, to be elected or appointed in such manner as this Society may hereafter provide, and also of nine delegates from the Woman's Home Missionary Union, to be elected annually by that body.

ARTICLE VI.

Twenty-five members of the Society present at any meeting legally assembled shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of all business.

ARTICLE VII.

Said corporation may hold real and personal property not to exceed in value the sum of five hundred thousand dollars, to be devoted exclusively to the prosecution in the State of Michigan of Christian work, as indicated in Article II of the constitution, by missionaries, publications and such other means, agencies, and instrumentalities as may be necessary therefor.

Said Michigan Home Missionary Society shall have power to receive and execute trusts for the general purposes of the said Society, and may receive, hold, invest, reinvest and expend all money and other property given or bequeathed in trust or otherwise to the said Michigan Home Missionary Society, and shall execute said trusts for the general purposes of the said corporation within the meaning of the acts under which the same is incorporated in accordance with the terms and conditions of said trusts.

ARTICLE VIII.

The term of existence of this corporation is fixed at thirty years from the date hereof.

Done at Olivet, Michigan, June 13, 1895.

Amended at Lansing, Michigan May 21, 1908.

Constitution and By-Laws.

ARTICLE I.

The name of this organization shall be the Michigan Home Missionary Society.

ARTICLE II.

The object of this Society shall be to promote the organization of Congregational churches in Michigan, to aid churches in the support of their local ministry and work, and to co-operate with all the benevolent organizations of the church and especially with the Michigan Congregational Conference in the cause of missions in other states and territories.

ARTICLE III.

The membership of this society shall consist of the members of the Michigan Congregational Conference and of life members, and also nine delegates from the Women's Home Missionary Union, to be elected annually by that body.

Any member of any Congregational Church in this state may become a life member of this Society upon the payment to the Society in his behalf of the sum of thirty dollars, and an election to such membership by a majority vote of the members present and voting at any meeting of this Society; it being provided that in connection with the gifts of churches, life membership is to be conferred only upon such persons as have been elected to this honor by the contributing churches; such election to be properly certified to the treasurer of this Society.

Any member of any Congregational church in this State shall be eligible to election to any office in this Society.

ARTICLE IV.

The officers of this Society shall be a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer. They shall be elected by ballot at the annual meeting of the Society and shall hold their offices for one year and until their successors shall be elected and qualified.

Said officers shall furnish the Board of Trustees with any information required by them on all matters relating to their respective departments, and shall perform all other duties usually pertaining to these officers.

ARTICLE V.

The annual meeting of this Society shall be held on the Thursday next after the third Tuesday of May in each year, at the place where the annual meeting of the Michigan Congregational Conference shall be held.

Special meetings may be called whenever, in the unanimous opinion of the President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer, the interests of the Society so demand.

ARTICLE VI.

Twenty-five members of the Society, present at any meeting legally assembled, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

ARTICLE VII.

The trustees of the Michigan Congregational Conference shall be ex-officio the trustees of this Society. Their powers and duties shall be the same with reference to this Society, the conduct of its affairs and the administration of its property and interests as defined for the trustees of the said Congregational Conference in the constitution and by-laws thereof.

ARTICLE VIII.

The Society may, from time to time, adopt such rules as may be necessary for the dispatch of business.

ARTICLE IX.

The constitution and by-laws may be changed or amended at any regular meeting of the Society by a two-thirds vote of the members present, provided the intended change or amendment shall have been proposed in substance at the previous meeting.

BY-LAWS.

The fiscal year of this Society shall close at the same time as the fiscal year of the Michigan Congregational Conference.

MICHIGAN HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

EIGHTEENTH ANNUAL MEETING.

Alpena, Michigan, June 27, 1912.

The Michigan Home Missionary Society was called to order at 10:15 by the Vice-President, Mr. F. E. Bogart.

The Society voted that the Conference scribes and nominating committee act in their respective capacities for the Society.

The Society dispensed with the reading of the Treasurer's report. The report was accepted and adopted and ordered printed in the minutes.

The Nominating Committee reporting the following, who were elected:

For President—Rev. H. A. Putnam, Ludington.

For Vice President—Mr. E. B. Perry, Bay City.

For Secretary-Treasurer—Mr. C. A. Gower, Lansing.

C. A. Gower offered the following resolution which was adopted:

"Be it resolved, That the Board of Trustees of the Michigan Congregational Conference and its Executive Committee are hereby appointed the agents of this Board for the purpose of applying the funds of this Board to the purposes designated by the donors thereof, or to such other work of the Society as, in their judgment and discretion, may be best for the interests of such work."

On motion the Society adjourned.

W. S. STEENSMA, Scribe.

FRED PINCH, Asst. Scribe.

MICHIGAN HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Treasurer's Report.

MR. F. E. BOGART, Vice President Michigan Home Missionary Society.

Dear Sir:—I hereby submit my report of the year ending December 31, 1911.

Very respectfully,

C. A. GOWER,

Lansing, Mich., June 15, 1912.

Treasurer.

C. A. GOWER, Treasurer,

In account with Michigan Home Missionary Society:

To balance on hand Jan. 1, 1911:

Mrs. L. A. H. Childs Fund (par value of securities) $1,500 00

Nashville Church Property (par value of securities)

1,500 00 $3,000 00

To receipts from interest on securities $150 00

To receipts from New York Fund 270 00 420 00

$3,420 00

By transfer to Home Miss. Dept. Mich. Cong. Conf..... $420 00

Balance on hand Mrs. L. A. H. Childs Fund..... 1,500 00

Balance on hand Nashville Church Property..... 1,500 00

$3,420 00

The Nashville Church property Fund was constituted by the Trustees of the Michigan Home Missionary Society under the terms of contract (in our possession in duplicate) with the trustees of the Nashville Congregational Church upon the dissolution of that organization making the trustees of the Home Missionary Society custodians in trust for a term of fifteen years from July 27, 1906, with the proviso that should a Congregational Church be organized in Nashville within that time, the money should revert to the newly organized church and that at the expiration of the fifteen years the money should be the property of the Michigan Home Missionary Society. During the fifteen years the proceeds to be used in the interest of Home Missions. This fund is invested in Flint (Mich.) Gas Co. Bonds Nos. 83, 113, 119, $500 each, due November 1, 1924, interest 5 per cent., payable May 1 and November 1.

The Mrs. L. A. H. Childs Fund was constituted by the trustees of the Michigan Home Missionary Society from the bequest of Mrs. L. A. H. Childs, of Whittaker, Michigan. While the use of this fund is not restricted, it was the desire of the donor and has been the purpose of the trustees to treat this as a permanent fund, the proceeds of which should be used for Home Missions. This fund has been invested in LaPorte (Ind.) Gas Co. Bonds, Nos. 72, 81, 82, $500 each. Due April 1, 1925, interest 5 per cent, due April 1 and October 1.

I hereby certify that I have examined the books and vouchers of C. A. Gower, treasurer of the Michigan Home Missionary Society, and find them correct. I also find that the securities above referred to are in the possession of the treasurer and are in safe keeping, deposited in a safety deposit box of the Lansing State Savings Bank.

FRANK B. McKIBBIN,

Lansing, Mich., June 21, 1912.

Auditor.

REPORT OF MICHIGAN BRANCH W. B. M. I.

THIRTY-NINTH ANNUAL MEETING.

The thirty-ninth annual meeting of the Michigan Branch W. B. M. I. was held in the First Congregational Church, Saginaw, March 28, 1912.

After the devotional service led by Rev. J. W. Sutherland, Superintendent, the following reports were given: Corresponding Secretary, by Mrs. F. E. Hammond; Junior Secretary, read by Mrs. Geo. T. Bemis, Recording Secretary; Juvenile Secretary, by Mrs. G. P. Kingsbury; Treasurer's report, read by Miss Caroline Crosman. These reports all showed an increase of interest in the work, and the Treasurer's report showed the total receipts to be $8,544.83, or $1,230.66 more than in 1911.

Greetings from the W. B. M. I. were presented by Mrs. L. O. Lee.

The budget recommended by the Executive Board was read and adopted $7,500 for definite work.

Then followed brief papers about our missionaries supported by the Michigan Branch, and the next hour was full of interest.

Mrs. E. D. Marden, Constantinople, supported by Grand Rapids Association, was presented by Mrs. Geo. L. Savage, Grand Rapids; Miss Jessie Hoppin, Kusaie, Micronesia, supported by Kalamazoo Association, presented by Mrs. A. H. Stoneman; Miss Lucia Lyon, Pang Chaung, China, supported by First Church, Detroit, presented a paper written by Mrs. A. B. Lyon, and read by Mrs. J. P. Huget, of Detroit; Miss Grace H. Stone, supported by Jackson and Muskegon Association; Kobe, Japan, presented by Mrs. R. Z. Smith, Ann Arbor; Miss Janette Miller, Ochileso, Africa, supported by Detroit Association, presented by Mrs. W. B. Hogue, Detroit; Miss Grace McConnaughey, supported by Grand Traverse Association, presented by her mother, Mrs. L. McConnaughey, of Benzonia.

The afternoon session continued the interest, with stirring missionary addresses from Mrs. Eula Bates Lee, of Chicago, formerly a missionary in Turkey, and from Mrs. Lydia Lord Davis, formerly in China, upon the needs and opportunities of these countries.

An interesting hour with the children ended the afternoon program, and after the election of the following ticket adjourned until evening:

Honorary President—Mrs. L. Kassick, Jackson.

President—Mrs. Louis P. Haight, 5 Peck St., Muskegon.

1st Vice President—Mrs. Geo. A. Davis, 535 Fountain St., Grand Rapids.

REPORT OF THE W. H. M. U. OF MICHIGAN.

MINUTES OF THE THIRTY-FIRST ANNUAL MEETING.

The thirty-first annual meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Union of Michigan was called to order by the President, Mrs. C. R. Wilson, on Wednesday morning, March 27, in the First Congregational Church, of Saginaw.

After singing "I thank Thee, Lord, that Thou hast made the earth so bright," in the absence of Mrs. Cooley, of Lansing, Mrs. Wilson read, as the devotional service, the scriptural address of welcome given to the Woman's Home Missionary Federation, in Chicago.

Prayer was offered by Mrs. Rowland, of Grand Rapids.

In the absence of Mrs. Wagner, the Recording Secretary, Mrs. H. L. Wilton was elected Recording Secretary pro tem.

Dr. N. S. Bradley, pastor of the church, was called to the platform and in the most cordial and gracious manner, welcomed both branches of the Missionary Workers to Saginaw.

In an equally gracious manner, Mrs. Haight, of Muskegon, President of the "Branch," responded for both societies.

The president then announced the following standing committees:

Committee on Credentials:

Miss Bessie Smith, Saginaw; Mrs. George E. Thompson, Owosso.

Committee on Resolutions:

Mrs. J. Percival Huget, Detroit; Mrs. A. C. Diefenbach, Benton Harbor.

Committee on Place of Meeting:

Mrs. Bemis, Grand Rapids; Mrs. Z. E. White, Somerset.

Committee on Nominations for 1913:

Mrs. L. McConnaughey, Benzonia; Mrs. W. J. Bristol, Kalamazoo; Mrs. Butler, Ann Arbor; Mrs. T. C. Williams, Imlay City; Mrs. E. F. Oberlin, Pontiac.

Reports of officers were given as follows:

Board of Trustees, by Mrs. I. P. Powell, Grand Rapids, Chairman.

Executive Board, in absence of Mrs. Wagner, by Mrs. Wilton.

Corresponding Secretary, by Mrs. H. L. Wilton, Detroit.

Secretary of Junior Work, by Miss Ella Wagner, Ann Arbor.

Secretary of Juvenile Work, by Miss Marguerite White, Detroit.

Secretary of Literature, in the absence of Mrs. Edwards, by Mrs. Chase, of Traverse City.

These reports were severally accepted.

The Treasurer's Report was read by Mrs. C. K. McGee, of Ann Arbor, and the Auditor's report by Mrs. Wilson.

Upon motion this report was accepted.

Principal G. R. Catton of Benzonia Academy, followed with a telling address upon "The Personal Note in Education."

A paper—"Christlike Hospitality," prepared by Mrs. M. M. Martin, of Ann Arbor, was read by Miss Harriett Potter, of Detroit.

The morning's session closed with an open conference of the officers and delegates present on practical methods of work.

After a delicious luncheon, served by the ladies of the church, and a delightful social hour, the afternoon session was called to order at 1:40.

Mrs. F. B. Crego, of Saginaw, one of the Vice Presidents of the Union, led the devotional service and brought us the thought of "The Christian's Rest."

Dr. Sutherland, State Superintendent of Michigan Churches, then gave us a rapid and instructive historical account of work undertaken by the Congregational Church in Michigan, taking as his topic "Michigan—Subtract W. H. M. U.—Result?" After a selection by the high school quartette, Mrs. Powell read a poem, "The Scum of the Earth," written by a son of Dr. Schauffler.

Miss Beatty, of New York, representative of the A. M. A., brought the greetings of that organization to us and told us of "Practical Work in Picturesque Fields."

The recommendation from the Executive Board that the present Percentage Plan of Work be followed during 1912, upon motion of Mrs. Rowland, was ratified.

Mrs. Powell moved the adoption of the recommendation of the Board to the effect "that Michigan shall cooperate with the Home Missionary Federation in the proposed Interdenominational Home Missionary Campaign, and that the retiring president shall be empowered to instruct the treasurer as to the amount which would properly be Michigan's share in the expenses of the same." The recommendation was adopted.

The Committee on Credentials reported that credentials of five State Officers and 33 delegates had been handed to the committee. This report was accepted.

As the report on Place of Meeting was not ready, it was moved that this report "be left with the committee, after consulting with the committee to be appointed by the Branch." Carried.

The committee on Resolutions reported as follows:

"Your Committee on Resolutions begs leave to submit the following resolutions in behalf of the W. H. M. U.:

We most sincerely thank the ladies of the First Congregational Church of Saginaw for their very gracious hospitality to the women of Michigan who have been privileged to attend this meeting.

They have anticipated every want and most bountifully supplied every need for physical comfort, and by their warm and friendly interest in us, they have made us feel that we are friends indeed.

Also we beg to recommend through you to the churches of Michigan, an increasing interest in Benzonia Academy. We feel, from the words of its head, Principal Catton, that it merits your support because of the religious interest, and because of the deep personal hold it has on the young men and women who make the institution.

We also wish to thank the officers of the Union and the members of the Program Committee for the hard, faithful, and often thankless work, they have done during the year for our pleasure and the upbuilding of the work in Michigan.

It is with feelings of deep personal regret that we must think of the retiring of our beloved president.

She has so beautifully presided over these meetings for ten consecutive years, and has so greatly endeared herself to us by her gracious personality, her wonderful tact, her unfailing patience, and her abundant ability to work and to help others in their work, that we can only hint at our sorrow in losing her from the position, and we know that we now can please her best by pledging our loyalty and support to the one who will take up the duties she feels she must now lay down.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. PERCIVAL HUGET,
MRS. A. C. DIEFENBACH.

The Committee on Nominations for 1912, through Mrs. Skeele, of Olivet, reported as follows:

The committee learned unwillingly and with profound regret that they must accept as final the resignation of our beloved President, Mrs. C. R. Wilson; but they realized that ten years of unremitting service and unstinted giving of time, strength and means entitled her to release from the burdens so graciously borne, of that position.

They consider themselves happy in being able to present as her successor the name of one who has already proved her love for and devotion to the work and who, in the two years of most acceptable service on the Board, has learned something of the scope and methods of the work.

We take pleasure in presenting the following names:

For President—Mrs. C. W. Wagner, Ann Arbor.

For Vice President—Mrs. I. P. Powell, Grand Rapids.

For Second Vice President—Mrs. C. R. Wilson, Detroit.

For Third Vice President—Mrs. M. Martin, Ann Arbor.

For Fourth Vice President—Mrs. E. G. Lancaster, Olivet.

For Fifth Vice President—Mrs. F. B. Crego, Saginaw.

For Sixth Vice President—Mrs. Frank Cooley, Lansing.

For Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. H. L. Wilton, Grosse Ile.

For Assistant Corresponding Secretary—Miss Harriet Potter, Detroit.

For Recording Secretary—Mrs. Geo. Burton Wade, Laingsburg.

For Secretary of Junior and Juvenile Work—Miss Ella L. Wagner, Ann Arbor.

For Assistant Secretary of Junior and Juvenile Work—Mrs. H. Schmidt, Chelsea.

For Secretary of Literature—Mrs. E. L. Edwards, Traverse City.

For Treasurer—Mrs. C. K. McGee, Ann Arbor.

For Auditor—Mr. H. A. Williams, Ann Arbor.

Trustees for three years—Mrs. E. H. Porter, Lansing; Mrs. L. P. Rowland, Grand Rapids; Mrs. C. K. McGee, Ann Arbor.

Delegate to Woman's Home Missionary Federation—Mrs. C. W. Wagner, Ann Arbor.

Delegates to State Association at Alpena—Mrs. C. W. Wagner, Ann Arbor; Mrs. J. E. Coulter, Grand Rapids; Mrs. Geo. E. Thompson, Owosso; Mrs. Geo. Hatfield, Lansing; Mrs. G. H. Coman, Breckenridge; Mrs. I. W. Stuart, Alpena; Miss McRae, Alpena; Mrs. H. A. Putnam, Charlevoix; Mrs. B. J. Vincent, Saginaw.

The report of the Nominating Committee was accepted.

Upon motion of Mrs. Powell, the secretary was instructed to cast the ballot for the election of the officers for 1912.

Mrs. Coulter, of Grand Rapids, moved that Article V of the Articles of Incorporation be amended by adding the clause: "A trustee having served two terms (6 years) shall be ineligible for re-election until one year has elapsed."

Moved by Mrs. Harper and seconded, that this amendment be adopted.

Moved by Mrs. Martin, Benton Harbor, that action upon this amendment be postponed until next annual meeting. This motion was carried.

The beautiful closing message of our retiring president, Mrs. Wilson, sent us forth with lifted ideals of what we, as women, may do and be, and of the privilege which is ours in being co-laborers in this work.

Mrs. Knight moved that a message of sympathy and love be sent to our new president, Mrs. Wagner, who was prevented from being with us, owing to illness.

The minutes of the morning and afternoon sessions were read and approved, and the secretary was authorized to complete the minutes after the evening session.

The meeting adjourned, after being led in prayer by Miss Crosman, of Detroit.

The evening meeting was led in its devotional service by Dr. Bradley.

Miss Miriam L. Woodberry, secretary of the Woman's Department C. H. M. S., gave a most stirring address on the "Lure of the Frontier," and brought some of the Home Missionary problems very close home to her audience.

She was followed by an address by President E. G. Lancaster, of Olivet, upon the "Claims of Child Life on Christianity."

The meeting closed with the benediction by Dr. Bradley.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY E. J. WILTON,

Recording Secretary pro tem.

MICHIGAN CONGREGATIONAL BROTHERHOOD.

MINUTES.

Alpena, Mich., June 25, 1912.

The annual meeting of the Michigan Congregational Brotherhood, met in Alpena, in connection with the Seventy-first Annual Congregational Conference. At 6:30 the annual banquet was served to more than two hundred members and delegates. Meeting was called to order by President L. P. Haight. I. W. Stuart was appointed Secretary pro tem by the chair, minutes of the last annual meeting were read and approved, Mr. F. E. Bogart and I. W. Stuart were appointed by the chair to nominate officers for the ensuing year.

The dining room was so crowded that it was thought best to adjourn to meet again fifteen minutes later in the auditorium of the church, before they separated the following resolution was made and adopted: That we extend our cordial thanks to the ladies of the Baptist church, and the orchestra, for their excellent service.

Meeting in the Auditorium at 8:15 was called to order by the President, after singing and prayer, President Haight read a letter from Seward E. Clark, Chairman of the W. H. Davis Brotherhood of Detroit, in which Mr. Clark expressed his regrets that he was not able to be present to take his assigned part on the program, and a paper prepared by him was read by W. T. Warren, President of the Alpena Brotherhood. The president read his annual report and message, this report showed that the state was gradually being leavened by the Brotherhood spirit, and many who have not organized are going to do it very soon. Rev. Harry A. Atkinson, General Secretary of the National Brotherhood, gave an address on the larger phases of the Brotherhood work.

The Nominating Committee reported as follows: For President, Seward E. Clark of Detroit; Vice President, W. T. Warren, Alpena; Secretary-Treasurer, H. B. Clement, Detroit. The above named nominated officers were duly elected.

A unanimous vote of thanks was extended to the retiring president for his faithful service during the past two years. Meeting adjourned.

I. W. STUART,
Secretary pro tem.

REPORT OF PRESIDENT.

President Louis P. Haight in his Annual Report made it very clear that it was not the desire of the State Brotherhood officers to separate the work of the Brotherhood from the church by another organization, and that the Brotherhood work of the state was really the masculine side of the church work, and was an integral part of the church, and that he had endeavored to get a report of what the men were doing in every church in the state, and regretted that all of the men's organizations working along Brotherhood lines were not represented.

He then read a report from the churches which had responded to his letters as follows:

Name of Church.	No. in B. H.	No. in M. C.	Special Work.

NEXT MEETING

The next meeting of the Michigan Congregational Conference will be held at Cadillac on the third Tuesday in May, 1913, beginning at 7:30 o'clock p. m.

Every Congregational Church connected with a local association in this state is entitled to representation in this conference by its pastor, if a member in regular standing in some local association in this state, and by one delegate to be chosen by such church annually. All officers of the conference, all ministers in regular standing in any local association in the state, and all who may be members of the board of trustees in regular standing during any part of the annual state meeting are entitled to membership in the conference.

The "Minutes" are sent to the pastor and clerk of each Congregational Church of Michigan. Church clerks are requested to preserve the "Minutes" with other records of the church.
